

The Boat House at Best Western Le Strange Arms Hotel Old Hunstanton, Norfolk

The Boat House is set within the ground of the Best Western Le Strange Arms Hotel and the Ancient Mariner Inn. The hotel has a comfortable lounge and a stylish restaurant offering table d'hôte and speciality menus featuring fresh and local produce. The popular Ancient Mariner welcomes families and is renowned for its choice of real ales and range of food - available in the bars or the Galley Restaurant.

Stately homes within easy driving include Sandringham House, HM the Queen's private home in Norfolk, Holkham and Houghton Halls with the nearby attractions of Norfolk Lavender and the Thursford Collection. Burnham Thorpe, the birthplace of Lord Nelson is only 11 miles away.

Sandringham House - by gracious permission of HM the Queen

Test your skill on West Norfolk's superb golf courses, with arguably the best of them all, Hunstanton Golf Club, just half a mile away.

Furthermore some of the finest bird watching in Britain is on our doorstep, being midway between RSPB Titchwell and Snettisham (6 miles).

The Boat House Apartments

Set in the grounds of the hotel, the Boat House apartments enjoy sweeping views across the lawns to the beach and sea beyond. The Boat House offers two self-catering apartments and on the lower ground floor, two individual guest bedrooms.

Each of the apartments has a full equipped kitchenette with dishwasher, a comfortable lounge/dining room with a sofa bed, and balcony. The ground floor apartment has 3 double rooms, whilst the first floor apartment has 2 double rooms. All the bedrooms have en suite facilities, television, radio and a direct dial telephone.

